

What is ABC? Reinforcement or punishment?

Is your child accustomed to use crying and/or screaming to get what he/she wants? Do you find yourself asking your child repeatedly to perform a task but he/she will only comply when you threaten to remove his/her privileges? Parenting can be challenging at times, especially in situations when we are busy, tired, or simply want a peaceful moment to ourselves. This seminar offers parents preliminary information regarding behaviour management; especially when and how reinforcement and punishment should or should not be used.
